

Assoc. Prof. Dr Mladen Karadjoski

Faculty of Law, University St. Kliment Ohridski, Bitola

Mladen Karadjoski is an associate professor in Public Administration. His research interests and specialization are in the areas of: Administrative Cooperation between the European States, European Integration of Macedonia and Western Balkans, Institutions of European Union, Enlargement Policy of the European Union, Regional Policy of the European Union, Common Foreign and Security Policy of the European Union, Cross-Border Cooperation, Local and Regional Development, Instruments for Pre-Accession. He was a visiting professor (SIGMA Program) at the University of Warsaw, Faculty of Political Sciences and Journalism, Institute of European Studies, in the winter semester (academic 2013/2014), for the subject: Western Balkan countries' accession towards the European Union. He is a co-founder of the Institute for Research and European Studies (IRES) - Bitola, established in 2013, and the managing editor in the Journal of Liberty and International Affairs (JLIA) from 2014. He is also a member of the Advisory Board in the academic Journal Studia Europejskie (European Studies), Warsaw, Poland, from the 5th of June, 2014.